

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

(Established by Ministry of Human Resources Development, Govt. Of India)
Yupia, District Papum Pare, Arunachal Pradesh – 791112

---

A half-day workshop on IPv6 was held at NIT, Yupia, Arunachal Pradesh on 2ND of Dec, 2013, where in following topics were covered by the experts from Department of Telecommunication, Ministry of Communication and IT Sanchar Bhawan, New Delhi.

1. IPv6 - "A new paradigm in Internet" delivered by Mr. Sujit Kumar, Deputy Director General from National Training Institute of Policy Research Innovation and technology (NTIPRIT). He emphasized the need of IPv6 by explaining the limitation of existing IPv4.
2. Next Generation Internet and Govt. Initiatives - Ms. Subha N Bhambhani, Deputy Director General Department of Telecommunication, Ministry of Communication and IT. Explained at length the government policy and initiatives taken in this regards.
3. IPv6 application and new services- Mr. K. D. Singh Director, Department of Telecommunication, Ministry of Communication and IT, appraised regarding the wide application in various fields of IPv6, such as Communication Agriculture, Medical, National Security etc etc..

The faculty members and the final year students (about 80 in number) of the institute took part actively in the workshop and collected the information regarding state of the arts under IPv6. The student interacted with the experts and desired to take up the projects for their final semester and the experts agreed to provide the same very shortly.

Dean (Academic)
National Institute of Technology
Yupia, Arunachal Pradesh